VISA CANADA

Choices & Decisions: Taking charge of your financial life™, Visa Canada's financial literacy classroom resource, helps Canadian high school students to prepare for the costs associated with post-secondary education and for the responsibilities that come with managing their own financial futures after graduation.

Choices & Decisions: Taking charge of your financial life is a free, curriculum-based resource designed to help educators teach high school students how to manage their money, develop effective financial strategies, and achieve their financial goals. This modular educational kit, which includes a Teacher's Guide, 15 Chapter Lesson Plans, quizzes, student activity worksheets, provides information on how students can establish and maintain a budget; plan for financing future education; and apply for credit cards and loans.

To order the full Choices & Decisions kit, or to download lessons and in-class activities, visit www.practicalmoneyskills.ca.

Financial Basics for the Real World.

Budgeting, Saving, Investing and Spending are skills that need to be learned, like anything else. Visa Canada's website, Practical Money Skills, offers easy-to-use, informative, and comprehensive learning tools that can be used by teachers, students, parents and anyone who wants to improve their financial literacy. There are many interactive and fun exercises that deal with issues from calculating compounded interest, paying off student loans and mortgages and so much more. To take advantage of the excellent learning resources offered at [Practical Money Skills.ca](http://Practical Money Skills.ca), click here or select one of the boxes featured below.
